※ Double and triple rooms may be applied for only within the number of rooms available
※ The fee for at least one meal a day (KRW 585,000) is compulsory; meals bought on site cost KRW 5,500 each
※ The cafeteria is closed on weekends and during national holidays
※ The number of meals may be changed only during the meal-change period at the start of the semester; no change or refund is possible afterwards (dates to be announced)
※ The period may change with the academic calendar, and the fees may change accordingly

3. Move-in Procedure

Choose dormitory » Apply » Pay fees » Room assignment » Move in ○ Application: dormitory website → application for entering students (log in with date of birth) → complete the form (attach the tuberculosis test certificate)

○ Students residing abroad submit the application through the Office of International Affairs
○ First-choice room types are assigned first; if unassigned, rooms are allocated in the order of second, third and fourth choice within the rooms available
○ Payment: print the invoice from the website (it is not mailed) and pay at Gwangju Bank or to the virtual account
○ Failure to pay within the payment period results in rejection; the room type cannot be changed after payment
○ Room assignments and detailed dates are announced on the dormitory website and individually

4. Living Information

- ○ What to bring: ID card, bedding, toiletries and personal items
- ○ Prohibited: televisions, electric cooking appliances, flammable materials, pets, gambling devices, knives and the like
- ○ House rules: smoking (including e-cigarettes) is strictly prohibited inside the building; quiet hours after 22:00; entry and exit closed from 01:00 to 05:00
- ○ Early withdrawal: submit a withdrawal form on the portal system at least three days in advance and obtain the supervisor's confirmation
- ○ Refunds: the accommodation fee is settled on a sliding scale under the dormitory rules; the meal fee is refunded for the remaining days less five days
- ○ Students who withdraw early may not move in again during the same semester or the seasonal session
- ○ Observe the etiquette of communal living (see the dormitory website)
- ○ Use power strips with earth-leakage breakers in the rooms; daisy-chaining outlets is prohibited
- ○ Keep the international students' kitchen tidy, hygienic and clean after use
- ○ Inquiries: Dormitory Office +82-62-670-2803 / https://dorm.gwangju.ac.kr

09 Other Information

1. Academic Calendar

- ○ First day of class: 2027. 3. 2.(Tue)
- ○ Orientation for entering students: late February 2027 (details announced individually)

2. Course Registration

- ○ Advising: register for courses after consulting your department following the orientation
- ○ Method: online through the Gwangju University portal system
- ○ Course registration follows the regulations of the University

3. National Health Insurance

- ○ Enrollment: once alien registration is completed in Korea, students are automatically enrolled as local subscribers of the National Health Insurance
- ○ Premiums: subscribers must pay the premium every month; arrears restrict visa extension and other residence permits
- ○ Maintenance: international students must keep both National Health Insurance and private insurance throughout their enrollment

10 Important Notes

1. Applicants may not apply to more than one program
2. All entries on the application must be accurate; applicants bear any disadvantage arising from mistaken, omitted or incorrect entries or from incomplete documents
3. Admission is cancelled if the entries differ from the facts or if a matter materially affecting the admission decision was not disclosed in advance
4. If omission, falsehood or fraud in material respects is found in the documents used for the admission decision, admission is cancelled whether before or after enrolment; if it emerges, even while enrolled, that admission was obtained by fraudulent means, the admission permit is revoked
5. Tuition already paid is not refunded where the admission permit is revoked under item 4
6. Admission scores and evaluation details are not disclosed
7. Applications and documents submitted are not returned, whether or not the applicant is admitted; documents needed for a visa application should be prepared separately
8. Applicants who fail to submit the required documents by the deadline are excluded from the interview and rejected; if this is found after admission, the admission is void
9. Applicants who submit a certificate of expected graduation must submit the graduation certificate before enrolment
10. Once the application is complete (application fee paid), it cannot be withdrawn and the fee is not refunded
11. Admission is cancelled if tuition is not paid within the registration period
12. Applicants who wish to give up their place must notify the Office of International Affairs at least seven days before the first day of the semester
13. An applicant admitted to more than one university may enrol at only one; dual enrolment is prohibited, so enrolment at any other university must be ended before the first day of the semester (2027. 3. 2.) (violation results in cancellation of admission)
14. Where an applicant cannot enter Korea because a visa is refused or a change of status is not permitted, the admission permit is revoked and tuition is refunded under the regulations of the University
15. Freshmen may not take a leave of absence in their first semester
16. If a TOPIK level rises after the application is submitted, the score report must be submitted before the interview for it to count towards the scholarship
17. For notarized translation, apostille and consular authentication, enquire at the issuing authority concerned
18. Tuition and scholarships follow the regulations of the University
19. Contact details must be accurate and reachable throughout the admission period; applicants bear any disadvantage from not receiving notices because of incorrect details
20. Where the Korean text of these guidelines and a translation differ, the Korean text prevails
21. Matters not specified in these guidelines follow the University's academic regulations and the Detailed Rules on the Admission of International Students; any other matter is determined by the Office of International Affairs
22. Inquiries: 062-670-2855 (Chinese), 2779 (Vietnamese), 2569 (Mongolian and other countries), 2858 (English)
